

Chrissy Daniels has been at Fayette Progressive School since 2001. She is an Early Intervention Assistant and Administrative Assistant. She works with children Birth-3 years of age with developmental delays and/or disabilities. EI offers year-round home base services and weekly playgroup sessions. She works closely with Help Me Grow and other outside agencies. She is in charge of intake paperwork and filing for EI and also assists the four Developmental Specialists and the Early Childhood Service Director with other needs.

Chrissy has been married to her husband Dan since July 1994 and they have two children. Kelsey, 23, is a Nurse at Adena Hospital and Trevor, 20, is working towards becoming an EMT/Paramedic.

She enjoys working with families and watching each child grow into his/her own little self, and celebrating every success along the way.
